Aug 9 —Sue Terwey-MN Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

Sue's presentation will cover the work of MOFAS in MN, and the affects and impacts as well as offer some suggestions for ways the Rotary can help to eliminate disability caused by alcohol consumption during pregnancy and to improve the quality of life for those living with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders throughout Minnesota.

Sue Terwey is Family Engagement Director at Minnesota Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (MOFAS). She has been working in the FASD field for the past 8 years. Sue oversees activities that support families from across Minnesota living with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD). She works collaboratively with community based agencies to create and provide services tailored to better meet the needs of individuals and families living with FASD. Sue has her M.S. in Community Counseling, spent 15 years as a Treatment Foster Care Provider parenting 25 children, and also worked in Special Education EBD classrooms.

Notes for August 2—by Ron Riach

Today was "Toga Day" at Roseville Rotary, recognizing the effort being made to supply Bridging with a whole bunch of bed sheets for delivery to their clients. The room was beautifully decorated and the meal prepared to enhance the "Roman" theme. We were greeted by David Kray, who also led us in the flag pledge. The Invocation was presented by Rob Davidson, who provided interesting historical background on the toga, which was a dress robe associated with the Romans. It could not be worn by soldiers and became to be known as a symbol of peace. Among other visitors and guests, Past District Governor, Tom Yuzer was with us today and received his own toga. Maybe he can wear it when he returns to his Rotary District in California!

Our day at the Fair has been set for Monday, August 30, 2010. Be sure to sign up for this annual event. Rotarians receive one free ticket and map with parking instructions in the mail prior to the club meeting, which is 5—7 pm in the Blue Ribbon Grill. Sign up again on Monday, August 9 or 16! Gayland Bender announced that sign up is now underway for the Friendship Exchange with the Phillippines. It is scheduled for January and February, 2011. Anyone interested should contact Gayland. Lesley Erickson thanked all those who helped provide a fun afternoon for 23 elders at the Little Bothers picnic. This is another great annual event sponsored by our club. Thank you, Lesley, for all your good work.

Queen of the Toga, Kim Flynn, next introduced Sara Sternberger, the relatively new Executive Director of Bridging. She stressed the need for donations of slightly used furniture (quality is important) to distribute to their clients. Bridging has been a favorite of ours for a long time and Kim and her committee have been working hard to facilitate the collection of items to be distributed to their clients, who are individuals and families merging into a housing situation and in need of beds, kitchenware, chairs and other household items. Bridging works with 120 social service agencies, who refer clients in need of these specific services. Fifteen to twenty semi truckloads of household materials and furnishings are given away each week. The demand is high and securing the needed supply is a constant challenge.

This is why Rotary has pledged to provide manpower for the “Build a Chair for Bridging” event, to be held September 18, 2010. Rotary volunteers are gathering at Bridging to assemble and paint one month’s supply of chairs—500 of them! Twelve Rotary Clubs are being tapped, with our own Kim Flynn, Hal Routhe, and other committee members leading the charge to secure and organize the necessary manpower.

We need you to get involved and sign up. Crew chiefs are needed to supervise the construction and will have a training session on August 28. Take the time to get involved in this very worthwhile project. For all his efforts in making presentations to other clubs and helping with this project, Hal was awarded the Roseville Rotary Service Above Self Award. Kim and Hal have put together the opportunity for all of us to make a difference. Now it is up to all of us.

Hal Routhe receives a Roseville Rotary Service Above Self Award for his tireless efforts for Bridging.

Even Bridging founder Fran Heitzman and Manager Sara Sternberger wore TOGAS!!!

GREETINGS: PAUL HARRIS ON THE BEGINNING OF A ROTARY YEAR:

Now as the Rotary New Year begins, I wish you all of the prosperity which your good deeds merit.

May all things you ought have be yours.
May your charities rank among your necessary expenditures.

May you not fall into the popular error of thinking that happiness is to be found in outdoing your neighbors.

May it always be yours to look beneath the veneer of life to the solid substance which lies beneath.

May you be builders, not mere climbers.
May you be able to appraise life's blessings at their real worth.

May you be free to act in accordance with the dictates of your own conscience and good judgment.

May you not be slaves to meaningless customs, social or otherwise.

May you shun the groove followers.

May you have vision to discern the right and health, strength and will to do it.

From "The Future of Rotary"

By Paul P. Harris (1868-1947)

Founder of Rotary, President Emeritus of the I. A. of R. C.

PAUL HARRIS' MESSAGE TO THE FIRST 1910 CONVENTION:

Gentlemen of the National Association of Rotary Clubs of America: I see there is no such thing as rest during these conventions. I thought that I might be able to steal away, if only for a few moments and get a little nap down at the New Southern. We worked the first night until 1 o'clock, last night until after 2, and I don't know whether we shall get to bed at all tonight; I do not expect to. This is too glorious an occasion, and the honor is too great to permit of sleep from now on.

I cannot tell you, gentlemen, how deeply I appreciate the honor you have conferred upon me. When the permanent chairman was handing me the gavel, he made the statement that he thought I was entitled to the position, due to work, and if it were put on that basis alone, I feel that there perhaps is some justification in your having elevated me to this supreme office, but I shall content myself with basing my conclusions entirely on that point. That is, I firmly believe that there are many more able men in this association than myself, and the only real logical excuse, as I see it, for my preferment at this particular moment, is that I have worked for a long time with the end in view of bringing about a National Convention.

Of course, the Rotary Club idea means much to me. It could not be otherwise. I have been living with this project since 1904, and during the major portion of that time it has been my conviction that all of these things, or nearly all of these things which have transpired now, would eventually come to pass. Sometimes, I think that I myself am over optimistic. I am led to that conclusion by reason of the fact that I find about me sane, level headed business men who are not disposed to take the same sanguine view of this situation that I am. I remember the time that I first mentioned to the members of the Rotary Club in a meeting gathered, the fact that it was my belief that, sooner or later, the Rotary Club thought would spread throughout the land; that even the most optimistic and the warmest of my friends expressed their doubts, and I remember that one gentleman, whose name it is not necessary for me to mention, out of pure loyalty perhaps to me, made the statement that he would go with me as far as it seemed practicable to go, and that from then on I would have to excuse him. This sentiment was expressed immediately after I had voiced the opinion that the Rotary Club was bound to spread throughout this land.

I would not really dare to tell you gentlemen, right now, what I think about the future of this organization. If I were to do so, I venture to say that there is not a man assembled here now who would not say that I was a vagarist. But the thoughts and the plans that I have for Rotary, transcend, I believe, anything that has yet been expressed by any member of any Rotary Club. We have undoubtedly a great many severe problems to confront us and it is going to require a masterful spirit and a masterful energy for us to cope successfully with those problems. ## WEAR YOUR ROTARY PIN!

The benefits of wearing your pin daily.

- The pin says more than “I am a member”
- Wearing the pin promotes subtle public relations work for the growth and retention of current and prospective members.
- The pin reinforces the fellowship and service ethic found in Rotary.
- The pin is a “conversation starter” allowing the Rotarian to share his/her experience and invite new members into the Club.
